An additional appointment will go to some senator of the west, and the thoice will fall either on Mr. Heyburn or Mr. Borrah of Idaho.

Mr. Root's Appointments.

Mr. Root is the only new senator who will receive importnat committee ap-pointments. Having been at the head of the war and states departments he will be placed on both the military afrairs and the foreign relations com-mittees. The second vacancy on the military affairs committee, made by the retirement of Mr. Fornker, will probably go to Senator Flint of Cali-fornia. Senators Crane and Nelson have been both mentioned in connec-Aftitee on rules in place of Sanator
